DIPLOMA IN ELEMENTARY EDUCATION COURSE
(D.EL.ED)

Prologue:

The Jammu and Kashmir State Board of School Education came into being by an Act of legislature, known as Jammu and Kashmir Board of School Education Act, 1975. This Board has territorial jurisdiction all over the State of Jammu and Kashmir. It advises the State government on the matters relating to academic guidance, prescribing the courses of studies and conduct of examination for Elementary, Secondary and Higher Secondary examinations, besides promotion of education for all. It has two Divisional offices located at Rehari Colony, Jammu and New Campus, Bye-pass Bemina, Srinagar. It is an autonomous body headed by a Chairman.

The J&K State Board of School Education conducts examination for the various classes and courses at divisional level after the expiry of academic calendar, which differ in the two Divisions i.e. Jammu and Kashmir Division, are as follows:

1. Secondary School Examinations;
2. Higher Secondary Examination Part-I;
3. Higher Secondary Examination Part-II;
4. One year Diploma Course in Elementary Education (D.E.Ed) for in Service under graduate Teachers;
5. Two Year Diploma in Elementary Education Course (D.El.Ed) previously known as ETTC and Prelude:
The Diploma in Elementary Education (D.El.Ed) Programme is meant for preparing teachers for Primary and Elementary schools, i.e. preparing teachers for age-group of 5+ to 13+.

Objectives of Diploma in Elementary Education:
The following objectives of teacher education have been formulated with the aim of school education in view. These objectives are by and large based on NPE, 1986, as amended in 1992 which, among other things, stipulates that:

“A child—centered and activity—based process of learning should be adopted at the primary stage. First generation learners should be allowed to set their own pace and be given supplementary remedial instruction. As the child grows, the component of cognitive learning will be increased and skills organized through practice”.

The Elementary Teacher Trainee should:

- Possess competence in the first and the second Language, Mathematics and in the topics of Natural and Social Sciences related to Environmental studies I and II.
- Develop skills in identifying, selecting and organizing learning experiences for teaching the above subjects in formal and non-formal situations.
- Possess sufficient theoretical and practical knowledge of Health, Physical and Recreational activities, Work Education, Art and Music, and skills for conducting these activities.
- Develop understanding of the psychological principles underlying the growth and development of the children of the age group of 5+ to 13+.
- Acquire theoretical and practical knowledge about childhood education including integrated teaching.
Develop understanding of major learning principles, which help in promoting cognitive, psychomotor and attitudinal leanings.

Understand the role of the home, the peer group and the community in shaping the personality of the child, and help develop an amicable home-school relationship for mutual benefit.

Conduct simple action research.

Understand the role of the school and of the teacher in changing the society.

Explicit Objectives:

1. To equip teachers with sufficient theoretical and practical knowledge and skills.

2. To develop a proper understanding of the psychological and sociological principles implicit in the elementary education.

3. To empower teacher for promoting all round development of children.

4. To generate the capacities for greater motivation, aspiration and a sense of value commitment.

5. To enable teacher to manage learning resources and organize experiences for children of this stage with the focus on the minimum levels of learning.

6. To enable teachers to foster problem-solving ability among pupils.

7. To acquaint them with methods and techniques of handling children with special needs.

8. To develop among them the capacity to solve the social and emotional problems of children.

9. To enable pupil—teachers to organize supplementary educational activities for this group of pupils.

10. To enable them to acquire necessary skills so as to develop curiosity, imagination and self-confidence among children.
11. To enable them to perform their various roles in the educational system, as well as, in society.

12. To develop communication skills.

13. To motivate them to undertake action research and employ innovative practices.

14. To enable them to use community resources as educational inputs.

The objectives of Elementary Teacher Education can be classified under three categories:

- Cognitive: (knowledge and understanding);
- Psycho-motor (skills); and
